Director - Howard Taylor

- Howard Taylor started his musical career in the Salvation Army in the South West of England, learning the cornet from a very early age. He progressed to become Principal Cornet of the Plymouth Exeter Hall Salvation Army Band and Youth Band conductor at the age of only 17. In 1985 he joined Championship section Bodmin Town Band of Cornwall and soon took up the position of Principal Cornet and Deputy Conductor.
- After a spell in Australia and NZ, Howard, a former Sales Engineer with British Gas took over the Baton at Bodmin Town in 1993 leading them to be judged South West Champions and Cornish Champions 3 years in succession. Howard's last playing engagement in the United Kingdom was at the Royal Albert Hall with the Welsh Champion Band, Tredegar before moving to New Zealand in 1997. His appointment to Musical Director of Waitakere Band saw him take them to the NZ Nationals that year, winning 2 out of the 3 sections. In 1999 they won every stage event becoming the New Zealand National Champion Band, and then went on to take the Shell Band of the Year Concert Title. During Howard's leadership Waitakere were crowned Auckland Champions for 3 years in succession and awarded the "NZ Band of the Year" in 1999, 2000 and 2001.
- 2002 saw Howard move to Brisbane, Australia where he was appointed Musical Director of Brisbane Excelsior. Since being in charge he has seen the band win the Queensland Championships in 2002 & 03, the NSW Championship 2003 and the Best of Brass Entertainment Competition. The band is the current A Grade Australian Champion, following up on the win in 2005.
- Starting a 2nd band "Windsor Brass" in 2003, Howard led them to their first Contest success in D Grade and the band has since been regraded to C Grade and then to B Grade all within the space of 6 months. He has now taken on the challenge of building a Junior Band in his spare time.

Shaun Crowther

- Shaun began playing the tuba in 1973 with his local brass band. He then joined the world famous Williams Fairey Brass Band in 1975 as principal tuba, a position he held for 25 years.
- In September 1997 Shaun enrolled as a mature student at the Royal Northern College of Music and graduated in 2001 with a B.A. (Mus). Whilst at College, Shaun decided to take a break from brass bands to concentrate on a freelance career. He has since performed with the Hallé Orchestra, Ulster Orchestra and Opera North as well as many other provincial orchestras. Shaun has also worked extensively in the chamber music field, performing with Hallé Brass, Ulster Brass, Nemo and Sonar Brass Quintets, as well as with the British and Northern Tuba Quartets.
- Shaun returned to brass bands as principal tuba with the internationally acclaimed Grimethorpe Colliery U.K. Coal Band.
- In September 2002 he joined the Kingston upon Hull Music Service as a teacher specialising in lower brass.
- As well as his teaching in Hull, Shaun is the specialist tuba teacher for Huddersfield University and has been lower brass tutor to the National Youth Wind Orchestra.
- He continues to perform regularly in many different musical genres and is in great demand for masterclasses. He is available for workshops and private teaching.
