Director - Ralph Hultgren

Bachelor of Arts (UQ) Master of Arts – Research (QUT)

19 Travill Street, Newmarket, Queensland, 4051, Australia

Ralph Hultgren resides in Newmarket, Queensland, with his wife Julie and two of his five children. His professional music career began as a trumpet player in 1970 playing with the Central Band of the Royal Australian Air Force, the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra, the Australian Brass Choir and as a freelance musician.

Mr Hultgren is currently Head of Pre Tertiary Studies at the Queensland Conservatorium Griffith University where he provides academic and artistic leadership to the Young Conservatorium. He also conducts the Queensland Conservatorium Wind Orchestra, as well as lecturing in conducting and instrumental music education at undergraduate and post-graduate levels.

Mr Hultgren's conducting credits include the direction of musicals, operettas, studio recordings for radio, television and disc, and the concert stage. He has premiered a number of his own works in Australian centres and internationally. He has conducted many ensembles across Australia, the Asia Pacific region and the United States of America and he is in constant demand as a guest conductor and clinician with appointments as a consultant in conducting, composition and music education awarded in Singapore, Hong Kong, New Zealand, Taiwan, the USA and throughout Australia.

Mr Hultgren is a founding member of the Australian Band and Orchestra Directors' Association (ABODA), and a member of the World Association for Symphonic Bands and Ensembles where he is a member of the Board of Directors and Chair of the WASBE Schools Network. He has lead ABODA as national president and twice as state president and was awarded life membership of ABODA in 1998. In 2000 he became the recipient of the Citation of Excellence, the Australian Band & Orchestra Directors' Association's highest honour. He is also the recipient of the 2005 Midwest Clinic International Award presented by the Board of Directors of the Midwest Clinic in recognition of his international contributions to music education.

Since commencing his composition life he has written works that span the broad spectrum of performance, from educational and amateur performing groups to the professional studio and stage. Outside of his musical endeavours, Mr Hultgren is an avid reader and the leader of his church Men's Fellowship.
