Throughout his celebrated eleven year career, James performed extensively throughout Australia and overseas, with numerous Symphonic Wind Bands, Big Bands, Parade Bands, Brass Quintets, Tuba Quartets and Solo Recital concerts with highlights being 'Tour De Force Concerts' in Dili-Timor (2000), Sydney Olympics Closing Ceremony (2000), Gallipoli ANZAC Commemoration Services (2002) and two 'Live to Air Broadcasts' on ABC 'Sunday Live' (2003-2005).

With twenty years professional teaching, performing and conducting experience, James is a highly sought after conductor, educator and adjudicator throughout Australia who has been invited to adjudicate many State and National Eisteddfods in recent years.

James has recorded, conducted and produced several CD recordings of note, 'ABC Live' recordings, solo recitals for 2MBS FM, a solo euphonium CD 'Symphonic Variants for Euphonium' in 1995, Australian and International web based recordings for

James has been privileged to work with many Primary, Secondary and Tertiary students throughout Australia and overseas prior and during his appointment as Musical Director of the Castle Hill RSL Youth Wind Orchestra, the North West Wind Ensemble and Friday Night 'Live' Big Band in 2005.

In addition to these achievements James is currently the Director of Instrumental Performance at Knox Grammar School, where he is the 'Conductor in Residence' of the Orchestral and Wind Band Program co-ordinating an Instrumental Program of 430 boys since 2008.

As Musical Director, James has led the Castle Hill RSL Youth Wind Orchestra, North West Wind Ensemble, Knox Symphonic Wind Ensemble, Knox Concert Band and Knox Year 7 Wind Band to a staggering thirty one New South Wales State and Australian National Championship title performances since 2005.
