Dr. Paul Terracini

New South Wales

Dr. Paul Terracini (born 1957) is an Australian conductor, composer/arranger who now lives in Australia after having spent nearly 20 years living and working in Europe. He has held permanent positions as Principal Trumpet in the Australian Opera and Ballet Orchestra (1975-1979); Lecturer in Trumpet, Concert Band, Brass Ensemble and Big Band at the QLD Conservatorium of Music (1982-1988); and Solo Trumpet in the Danish Chamber Players, Denmark (1991-2007).

Since concentrating on composing, his music has been performed by, amongst others, the Chicago Symphony Orchestra Brass, the Prague Symphony Orchestra, the Sydney Symphony Orchestra Brass, and the Australian Chamber Orchestra. He has also been guest professor and conductor at several conservatoriums in Europe and China. He has conducted ten CDs with the Prague Symphony Orchestra, as well as working as an opera conductor at the Rossini Festival in Germany, as an opera and orchestral conductor in Denmark, and as a guest conductor in Italy. For the last fifteen years he has written and conducted a great deal of music for film and television, which is now heard throughout the world. His music for the two part television series, "Hymns of the Forefathers I & II", received international acclaim and was released on CD and DVD by EMI. His title music for the international television series, "Classical Destinations," was featured on the "Number 1 Classical Album of 2007", released by Decca.

As a trumpet soloist Terracini has performed in Europe, U.S.A., England and Asia. In Australia, he has appeared as trumpet soloist with the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra, QLD Symphony Orchestra, Tasmanian Symphony Orchestra and the West Australian Symphony Orchestra.

For 16 years he was Chairman of the Storstroms Symphony Orchestra, in Denmark. As a member of the Danish Chamber Players, he performed all over Eastern and Western Europe, South America, and Asia.

He has recently been appointed Artistic Director and Principal Conductor of the Penrith Symphony Orchestra in Sydney and is in constant demand as guest conductor and instructor in a wide range of musical activities. In 2010, he composed two works for the International Trumpet Guild Conference and conducted one of the Gala Concerts. Also in 2010, he was guest composer/conductor at the Melbourne International Festival of Brass. In 2011, he has been guest composer/conductor at Northwestern University in Chicago and has conducted a new CD of music for clarinet and strings with the Prague Symphony Orchestra, for which he wrote all the arrangements. His Mass, for liturgical use, was first performed in Sydney, in September 2011. One of his works for large brass ensemble, Gegensätze, received its world premiere with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra Brass at Orchestra Hall, Chicago, on the 14th December 2011.
