Dr. Alan Lourens
D.Mus., F.R.S.A.

Western Australia

Dr. Alan Lourens is Head of the School of Music at the University of Western Australia, where he directs the Orchestra, Wind Ensemble and Brass Ensemble, as well as teaching conducting, pedagogy and courses in music education.

Previously, Dr. Lourens has held Professorial positions in Singapore, Dubai and Australia at leading arts institutions. Dr. Lourens appears as a guest conductor for orchestras and bands throughout Asia, Australia and the US, and regularly performs internationally on Euphonium. He is also active in the Brass Band movement in Australia, both as a conductor and soloist and is currently the Musical Director of The Royal Agricultural Society of Western Australia Brass. In 2008, Dr. Lourens was made a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts.

On Euphonium, he regularly appears as an international soloist, and has recorded and toured with ensembles including the Philharmonia à Vent, the Australian Wind Orchestra and the Western Australian Symphony Orchestra, under such conductors as Frederick Fennell, Harry Begian, Vernon Handley, Paul Daniels, Ray E. Cramer and Simone Young.

Dr. Lourens holds a Doctorate in Conducting and Masters degree in Euphonium Performance from Indiana University, where he studied conducting with Ray E. Cramer and Euphonium with Daniel Perantoni, M. Dee Stewart and Harvey G. Phillips. He received a coveted Performers Certificate for the quality of his Masters recital.

His undergraduate degree is in Music Education from the Western Australian College of Advanced Education. In that state, Dr. Lourens taught high school music for five years where he directed award winning ensembles, before being appointed as the Conducting Support Teacher for the state of Western Australia.

Dr. Lourens has many articles and music publications to his credit, including analysis contributions to the Teaching Music Through Performance in Band series of books, recent contributions to the US Based MBM Times. In 2010, he co-authored several books on the planning, policy and development of Universities. Cimarron Publishing has released his compositions and arrangements for both band and orchestra.
